Remembrance Day Assemblies at 10:30 am and 1:00 pm

Dear Families,

Thank you for joining us for our fall assemblies yesterday. If your family participates in Halloween and collected candy yesterday, please consider donating all unwanted or extra candy to the bin found at the front entrance of the school. The Leadership students at McMath Secondary School, along with the The Good Shepherd Ministry, are looking for the help and support of the Richmond community. Together their goal is to help provide some assistance to those living on the downtown east side. They are asking for donations of pre-packaged candy that will be gifted to those in need.

On Friday, we will be having our Remembrance Day Assemblies. Please remember that this is a sombre event, and no applause happens after each presentation or performance. The following classes will be presenting in order of appearance:

Assembly #1 @ 10:30 am (Doors open at 10:00am):

Classes Presenting in order of appearance: Div 21, 22, 23, 14, 16, 9 and 13

Assembly #2 @ 1:00 pm (Doors open at 12:30pm):

Classes Presenting in order of appearance: Div 10, 11, 12, 15, 17, 18, 19, and 20

Donations to the Poppy Fund to support Canadian Veterans can be made at the office.

All the best,

Kathy Pantaleo and Leah Scharf
